

2012 OLQM Intramural Basketball Grades K-2

OLQM invites all boys and girls in grades K-2 to participate in the intramural basketball program, beginning on Sunday, February 19th. As always, we will need parents to volunteer their time and efforts as coaches.

A Typical Session: Participants will receive about 30 minutes of fundamental skill work and approximately 30 minutes of game experience. Rims and backboards will be set to their lowest settings. Stations will include drills that emphasize passing, shooting, dribbling, catching, defense, rebounding, screening, and footwork.

Cost: $20 per player. ($25-late registration). This cost assumes the player has reversible jersey from last year.

$35 per player. ($40-late registration) For players who need to purchase the $15 reversible jersey.

($5 discount for each additional sibling)

Director: Curt Rotter - Parishioner, Master of Arts in Teaching, over 20 years basketball coaching experience at the high school and grade school level. Assisting Coach Rotter will be fellow parishioner, Coach Greg Everly.

Who: Any student or parish member interested in learning and playing basketball.

Where: OLQM gym

When: Sundays: February 19, 26, March 4, 11, 25th
